

Kernactiviteit

Video Promotion is the main Belgian media integrator active on the broadcast market since 1975.

We are placing at our customer's disposition all the means which allow to set up any type of equipment or project requested in the television and media industry. For this purpose we have established privileged relationships with the renowned manufacturers.

The list of these manufacturers can be found under our 'brands' section on www.videopromotion.be.

Video Promotion's main activities are the distribution and installation of equipment and integration of systems dedicated to the television and media industry, telecom industry and content aggregators, mainly in Belgium and Luxembourg.
